Form 990, Part III, Line 2 - New Services

In fiscal year 18-19 we launched Connections Matter, a community-based initiative developed by Prevent Child Abuse Iowa that is designed to engage community members in building caring connections to improve resiliency. Connections Matter explores how the connections we make in life profoundly impact the brain's ability to grow and our own individual abilities to cope and thrive. As part of this iniative we educate the public on the topics of Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs), trauma, brain development, and resilience by utilizing real-world concrete examples to demonstrate how ACEs adversely affect the brain and health outcomes. Connections Matter ultimately strives to promote the building of more resilient, compassionate, and trauma-informed communities - thus allowing all children and individuals to succeed.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Prevention Programs - Aided communities in developing Child Abuse Prevention Plans and implementation of parenting programs that foster safe nurturing environments for children and families. PCANC Worked with a statewide Prevention Network of over 430 subscribers to develop leadership and advocacy supports for community-based prevention organizations. Provided Implementation support, coaching, technical assistance, pre-service training, and professional network supports for the Incredible Years, Strengthening Families, and Circle of Parents Programs with statistically significant results from support received. Expanded our capacity to support and assist with statewide scaling of Triple P, an evidence based parenting program focusing on positive parenting strategies using a population-level, public health approach. Visit www.preventchildabusenc.org for program evaluation data. Expanded a coalition of stakeholders dedicated to promoting evidence-based and sustainable activities to: protect children from child sexual abuse, and promote safe, stable, nurturing relationships and environments through Essentials for Childhood. research, and skill building tips are provided to all 100 counties and over 85,000 organizations and individuals across the state. Information is provided to all interested citizens in regards to accessing parenting support in local communities, training on the Protective Factors is provided and we provide free web-based training on how to recognize and respond to child maltreatment. Policy-We have been working in coalition to build support for policies at the federal, state and local levels, including implementation of the federal Family First Prevention Services Act (FFPSA), advocacy for modernization and reauthorization of the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act, supporting Paid Family Leave with the Think Babies™ Coalition and supporting the redevelopment of a coalition to focus on strengthening prevention for child sexual abuse in NC. Our biggest policy wins were seeing Governor Cooper sign Executive Order No. 95 extending paid family leave to more than 56,000 state employees, and engagement of partners across the state to support implementation of FFPSA.
